

PRESS RELEASE

Valkaria Air Fest 2012

The Valkaria Air Fest 2012 is taking flight Saturday, February 18th, 2012 at the Valkaria Airport in Brevard County and is presented by the Valkaria Aviation Association, a non-profit charitable organization. Bring the whole family! This year features performances by World Champion Pilot Patty Wagstaff, James Bond stunt pilot Corky Fornof, and aerobatic pilot Freddy Cabanas will take flight with a lucky ticket winner for a thrilling adventure ride in his Pitts S2C special. This year's sensational "TWILIGHT AIR SHOW" will be concluded by the AeroShell T-6 night performance team. RIDES, RIDES, and RIDES is the theme, take your choice: an open cockpit bi-plane, aerobatic aircraft, glider, helicopter, powered parachute, hot air balloon, Cessna or gyrocopter the ultimate thrill! Ever wanted to fly upside down? Here's your chance. Come see a Military Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) demonstration along with many other attractions. Included in this year's Air Fest is a live musical concert and fireworks after the Twilight Air Show, surrounded by a Hot Air Balloon Glow. Get ready for a great day and evening at the airport with thrilling displays of aerobatic daredevils and other great family entertainment. Visit the web site for details, valkariaairfest.org.
